A Settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit against Domino's Pizza LLC ("Domino's") for alleged violations of the New York Labor Law. The Plaintiffs claim Domino's added delivery charges to delivery orders, and a reasonable consumer would believe those charges to be a tip for the delivery driver, but Domino's did not distribute those charges to delivery drivers. Plaintiffs contend that these delivery charges were "gratuities" under New York law that belong to the delivery drivers. Plaintiffs also allege that Domino's failed to reimburse New York delivery drivers and customer service representatives ("CSRs") for certain expenses in connection with their employment, and that Domino's was obligated, but did not, provide a uniform maintenance allowance to New York delivery drivers and CSRs. Domino's vigorously denies that it violated any law, but has agreed to the Settlement to avoid the uncertainties and expenses of continuing the case.

Am I a Class Member? The Settlement includes one class. Domino's records show you are in the class described below. You may recover as a member of the class if you qualify to participate.

What Can I Get? Your payment will depend on timely submission of a complete Claim Form and final court approval. You will receive a Settlement payment comprising the sum of the following:

- For each week of your employment as a delivery driver for Domino's between July 9, 2003 and May 31, 2010, you will receive $13 if you worked more than 30 hours and $10 if you worked 30 or fewer hours.
- For each week of your employment as a delivery driver or CSR between July 9, 2003 and December 31, 2010, you will receive $4
- For each week of your employment as a delivery driver or CSR between July 9, 2003 and [date of data pull], you will receive an additional $2.

How Do I Get a Payment? To obtain a payment, you must submit a timely and properly completed Claim Form (attached) signed under penalty of perjury by DATE. To exclude yourself and keep any rights you may have to sue Domino's based on the allegations in this lawsuit write the Settlement Administrator by DATE. Even if you do not exclude yourself, as long as you do not submit a Claim Form, you will keep any existing rights to sue Domino's under the Fair Labor Standards Act. If you do not exclude yourself, you may object to the proposed Settlement. To do so, you must file a written objection by DATE. See the full instructions for excluding yourself or objecting at www.XXXXXXXXX.com.

Who Represents Me? The Court appointed attorneys from Stueve Siegel Hanson LLP and Weinhaus & Potashnick P.C. as Class Counsel. They will seek legal fees paid by Domino's. You may also hire and pay for an attorney at your expense.

When Will the Court Consider the Proposed Settlement? The Court will hold the final approval hearing at TIME on DATE at the U.S. Courthouse, 225 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, NY, 11201.

How Do I Get More Information? This is only a summary. For more information, visit www.XXXXXXX.com or call Phone#.
